

The Capital Group Global

Human Resources & Payroll Director

Lucimar Laboy is an experienced payroll professional with both high-volume and complex payrolls in a variety of industries such as banking, sales, call centers, hospitality, manufacturing, piecework, and supply chains. Throughout her career, she has successfully managed payroll teams in the United States and Canada, gaining valuable insights and expertise. In addition to her extensive experience in implementing and upgrading payroll and time and attendance systems, she stays up-to-date with the latest legislation to ensure compliance. With her attention to detail and dedication to excellence, she consistently provides seamless services to her clients. Not only is she known for her competence and helpfulness, but she has also earned the respect of both employees and management due to her professionalism and integrity. Recognizing the importance of confidentiality, she handles sensitive information with the utmost care and discretion. Furthermore, she embraces challenges and firmly believes in the power of teamwork to overcome any obstacle. With her diverse skill set and unwavering commitment, Lucimar Laboy is well-equipped to handle any payroll complexities and deliver exceptional results.

+1 407 470 0849 or via email llaboy@thecapitalgroupglobal.com

